There Are Lots of Them in Town Today

And More of Them Are On the Way

WITH SIXTY BANNERS

And Badges in Great Variety They Gather

At the First Presbyterian Church This Afternoon.

Two thousand nice people, delegates to the state Christian Endeavor convention, are pouring into Topeka today on regular and special trains from every part of the state. Pretty young ladies, with tidy bonnets and trim dresses, accompanied by stalwart young men who don't use tobacco in any form, are sprinkled all over the city, especially Harrison street, "oh-ing" and "ah-ing" at the fine churches, excellent streets and well kept homes. They did this before it began to rain. When the rain came there were more "ohs" and "ah-mys," and the nearest shelter was sought. By the next time they come Topeka will have a new court house, Santa Fe hospital, high school and woolen mill to command their admiration.

who never heard of the society before volunteered to entertain delegates (at so much per delegate, usually a dollar a day). It is no small task to provide 2,500 or 3,000 delegates with places to eat or sleep, but that is what the local committees have done. In every ward in the city a house-to-house canvass was made, and the result is that 611 agreed to take delegates. This is for from one to ten at each house and the average is three or four. This reduces the number to such an extent that the hotels are able to take care of the rest. About half of the delegates will be furnished board free at Christian homes. The remainder will pay.

How They Began to Come.

The delegates began arriving this morning. Those who belong to the state executive committee and others who have business in advance of the rest, came in last night and on the early morning trains. The 11:30 train on the Santa Fe brought in 60 delegates from Lawrence, 30 from Leavenworth, Olathe 25, Ottawa 40, and about 50 from intermediate points. The Rock Island noon train brought in about 150. A Santa Fe special from the west arrived at 2 p. m. It contained the following delegates: Wichita 60, Hutchinson 25, Newton 25, Emporia 60, Osage-City 20, Burlingame 20, and about 50 that were gathered up as the train progressed. A chorus from Holton of 30 voices will arrive tomorrow morning. The Union Pacific is expected to bring in 150 delegates from Kansas City this afternoon.

The interest in the session is added to very materially by the presence of Rev. F. E. Clark, D. D., of Boston, who is the founder of the Christian Endeavor society. "Father Endeavor" Clark he is called. He will be entertained at the home of Judge J. T. Clark, 235 Greenwood avenue, "Fetwin." He speaks tonight on "Christian Endeavor the World Around," and tomorrow morning on "The Problem of the Unemployed." Rev. J. F. Cowan of Pittsburg, Pa., is another "big speaker." He can be heard at Representative hall tonight. His subject is, "Principles, enthusiasm and methods." The delegates will most of them stay in Topeka over Sunday.

The Decorations at the Church.

The first Presbyterian church where the more important meetings of the convention are to be held, has been elaborately decorated and it presents a bright appearance.

Draped over the choir balcony is a large blue banner on which, in white letters is:

FOR CHRIST AND THE CHURCH.

C. E.

All the pillars in the auditorium are draped with red, white and blue bunting and look much like immense barber poles. Flags of red, white and blue with C. E. are hung around on the walls. The little study back of the pulpit is covered with bunting, and a center float hangs high up from the ceiling. It is covered with bunting and has the Christian endeavor emblem on it.

There are also a large number of American flags placed around in conspicuous places.

A large platform has been erected in front of the pulpit and it will seat about one hundred and fifty.

At the First Presbyterian church, a small platform is being built out from the pulpit. The delegates can get their badges and be assigned to their lodgings at this church.

The Programmes.

The entertainment provided for the delegates is most elaborate. Besides the chorus from Holton there will be music by a Junior Endeavor chorus of 200, conducted by Rev. Dr. Blakesley. Prof. Samuel Tracy and Albert Watkins are also leaders in the musical department. The session opens this afternoon at the First Presbyterian church with addresses of welcome from Mayor W. T. Harrison and Rev. W. L. Byers of North Topeka. Tonight there will be two meetings, one at the Presbyterian church and the other in Representative hall. The programmes are:

Presbyterian church: Song service; organization and announcements; annual address of president, Prof. D. S. Kelly, Emporia; address, "Christian Endeavor the World Around," Rev. F. E. Clark, president U. S. C. E. Boston, Mass.

Representative Hall: Address, "Principles, Enthusiasm and Methods," Rev. J. F. Cowan, Pittsburg, Penn.; annual address of president, Prof. D. S. Kelly, Emporia.

Tomorrow morning there will be what is called the "pastors' period," conducted by Rev. Wm. Foulkes of Salina. The denominations will be represented as follows:

Baptist, Rev. F. J. Rice, Augusta; Christian, Rev. E. T. Wharton, Paola; Congregational, Rev. A. S. Bush, Centralia; Cumberland Presbyterian, Rev. J. B. Fly, of Hazelton; Evangelical, Friends, Isaac Woodward, Haviland; Lutheran, Rev. J. G. Griffith, Lawrence; Mennonite, Rev. Jacob Toews, Newton; Church of God, Elder E. T. Turpin, Topeka; Methodist Episcopal, Rev. W. J. Osborne, Kansas City; Methodist Episcopal South, Rev. A. J. Nettles, Kansas City; African Methodist, Rev. L. Parks, Highland; Methodist Protestant, Rev. S. W. Martin, Peabody; Presbyterian, Rev. F. H. Gamel, Cherryvale; Reformed, Rev. L. S. Faust, Iola; Reformed Presbyterian, Rev. T. J. Allen, Sterling; United Presbyterian, Rev. M. F. McKirahan, Topeka.

Local Committees.

The success of which the delegates have been provided for is due largely to the efforts of several local committees, chief among which are the following:

The Meeting Assemblies.

There was a great crowd of Endeavors this afternoon at the First Presbyterian church. It is wonderful the interest that is taken in the work by the young people. The delegates were not afraid of rain. That didn't amount to anything for nothing could dampen the ardor of these young Christians.

Many delegates thought that the assignments and credentials were given at the First Presbyterian church, but Rev. F. M. Poreh politely informed them that the Congregational church was the place to get them.

One of the distinguishing features of the Christian Endeavor is that it makes no distinction as to race, color, or denomination. Several colored delegates arrived and were treated so cordially, that their faces more than showed that they were pleased.

The delegates do not sit with a long face and stiff neck. They're not that kind of people. They are practical Christians, and while there are no exercises, they laugh and chat as merrily as anybody could.

Kansas Christian Endeavors by calling at 908 Kansas avenue, can make arrangements for church entertainments, illustrated lectures, etc.

CHASE ON THE RACK.

Warden of the Penitentiary Accused of Crookedness by Employees.

Charges of a most serious character have been filed with Governor Leveillé against Warden Dick Chase, of the state penitentiary at Lansing, and Directors W. J. Hurd, T. H. Butler and George Hollenbeck.

Several employees of the penitentiary have recently been discharged, and these discharged employees have now filed charges against the penitentiary officials and have asked the governor to order an investigation.

It is said that the trouble started between Warden Chase and his bookkeeper.

According to the story which has just been made public, Warden Chase sold some hogs belonging to the state and did not make any return of the sale. The bookkeeper wanted to enter up the sale of the hogs and Warden Chase wanted the books kept according to his instructions, which it is said were not to put down all the business transactions, particularly some state ones.

A short time ago Aaa Bunn, a Franklin county man, was appointed superintendent of the coal mine, and he and Warden Chase could not agree on the warden's plans of doing the business of the institution, and Bunn was discharged.

The charges and specifications are said to cover crookedness which has been going on in the penitentiary since the present administration has been in power.

The charges and specifications with a demand for an investigation were filed with the Governor Tuesday evening and the governor was asked to give an answer to the request for investigation within two days but he has not yet made any reply to the employees who made the charges.

To a STATE JOURNAL reporter today Governor Leveillé said: "Yes charges have been filed with me against Warden Chase and the directors of the penitentiary but I have not yet been able to give the matter much thought. This is the same old story over again. Some discharged employees make charges against the man who removed them."

"Are there not some very serious charges in the specifications filed?"

"Yes, and so were there in the charges against Superintendent Hitchcock of the reform school; there were some fifteen charges in all filed in that case, but they were not sustained by the committee, and I have not given this matter much thought yet, and I have nothing further to say."

The governor admitted that one of the employees signing the charges was still in the employ of the state, but said he was "just getting ready to be discharged."

HAS WON IT OVER.

Lawling Has the Shawnee Populist Machine, But There is War.

Vigorous measures have been taken to suppress all opposition to the state administration in the Populist ranks in Shawnee county.

At the last meeting of the Populist county central committee, every member known to be opposed to the administration was voted out of the committee, and their places were filled with men supposed to be friendly.

The first intimation of a fight for the Shawnee county delegation came when Ed Corning was put out of the room at the congressional central committee meeting at Emporia, by direction of J. W. Breidenthal. Corning was a member of the congressional committee, but was openly opposed to the state administration.

The next step was to get Corning and his friends off of the county central committee and this was done at the instigation of the chairman, Frank Leach. Those expelled with him were Frank Curry and A. Staley. Staley was chairman of the executive committee and managed the campaign in this county last year, while Frank Curry is one of the most influential Populists in the city.

In speaking of the matter Frank Curry said: "There is no question but that Breidenthal is responsible for the action of the committee. It is my candid opinion that Leach sold out; for he has openly made charges against the administration and his change of front is suspicious. We had determined to make a fight on that portion of the state call that asked that the committeemen should be selected by the county convention, and Breidenthal knew it. Let them go on; and if they nominate the old state house crowd, as they seem determined to do, our votes will be governed accordingly. I will not participate in the primaries."

"The excuse made by the committee was that we had moved out of the precincts from which we were selected, but the courts have held that a removal from one precinct to another does not offer sufficient grounds for an expulsion from the committee."

The names substituted for the deposed men are: R. E. Heller, A. Webber and T. A. Grange.

THERE IS DANGER.

The Scaffolding in the State House Dome Giving Away.

It was discovered today that the immense scaffolding standing in the center of the state house dome is in danger of falling. The underpinning is breaking down.

The scaffolding was put up to enable the workmen to raise the material in the construction of the dome and is now used by visitors in making the ascent to the top.

A force of workmen are endeavoring to put extra supports under the structure.

NAVE, M'CORD COMING.

A Branch of St. Joe's Biggest Grocery House to Locate Here.

Topeka is to have another large wholesale grocery house.

The firm of Nave, McCord & Co., which is one of the largest in the west, has decided to establish a house here and they will put in a large stock of goods as soon as a suitable building can be secured.

C. D. Scott, who is the buyer of fruits for Parkhurst, Davis & Co., has been employed as manager.

881 BALLOTS

Taken at the Olathe Deadlocked Convention.

No Apparent Change of Delegates is Recorded.

COMPACT HOLDS GOOD.

The Anti-Funston Combination Proves Solid.

A Futile Attempt Made to Dissolve it.

OLATHE, Kans., May 24.—The second congressional convention resumed balloting this morning at 9 o'clock. One hundred and fifty-four ballots were cast without change. After the 881st ballot, the convention adjourned until 4 o'clock this afternoon. Previous to the ballot taken the Funston men were defeated in an effort to break the compact which holds the convention in the deadlock.

Senator Metcalf from Anderson county moved that a committee of one from each nine delegations be selected to meet and confer with reference to recommending to their respective delegations some mode of bringing about a final settlement of the condition of affairs.

R. Hudson of Bourbon arose and offered a substitute to the motion that all pledges and contracts that are upon this convention be declared off. This proposition caused a heated discussion between the Funston and anti-Funston forces.

When Chairman Anthony with much sarcasm overruled the substitute motion, stating that such would be an infringement of the rights of any loyal American citizen, the original motion was modified to a request of the convention, when adjournment was taken.

Buchan More Hopeful.

Billy Buchan and his backers are more confident than ever that the ex-Wyandotte county senator will be nominated. One of Buchan's delegates today confided to a friend of his that Buchan and Funston had entered into an agreement by which Funston will throw his forces to Buchan and help nominate him rather than let the nomination go to any of the other candidates.

Since the effort to break the anti-Funston agreement has failed, Buchan is more hopeful than ever that Funston will give up the fight and turn his forces over when the convention reconvenes this afternoon.

The delegates who are in the anti-Funston compact are standing pat and say they are sure that in time they will succeed in shelving the Allen county farmer.

ANOTHER DEADLOCK.

Thirty Ballots Taken at Phillipsburg Without Change.

PHILLIPSBURG, Kas., May 24.—The thirtieth ballot was taken at 11 o'clock this morning, and resulted as follows:

Simpson..... 28
White..... 25
Ellis..... 23
Tilton..... 24
Lewis..... 8

Total..... 111

The convention then adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The last ballot taken last evening was as follows:

Ellis..... 23
White..... 17
Tilton..... 24
Lewis..... 16
Simpson..... 18
Reville..... 8

The candidates are A. H. Ellis of Mitchell, W. B. White of Jewell, W. S. Tilton of Osborne, C. A. Lewis of Phillips, W. A. Simpson of Norton and M. C. Reville of Woods.

At the close of last night's session J. H. Reeder withdrew.

The following is the financial plan adopted last evening:

"Resolved, That we regard gold monometallism, of which President Cleveland is an exponent, and silver monometallism, advocated by the Populists, as equally extreme. Our money, which is the most concrete form of property, consists of dollars which have equal debt paying and purchasing power, and does not shrink on our hands when received in payment for wages or products. We favor laws that will maintain this equality and secure the largest coinage and use of both gold and silver as money without destroying their parity, and the largest possible use of paper currency that can be maintained without depreciation."

Kelly's Army.

QUINCY, Ills., May 24.—General Kelly today announced his intention of moving his fleet on to Hannibal. They will camp tonight on Pearl island, opposite the city, where provisions now await them.

It Was Anti-Leveillé.

KANSAS CITY, May 24.—The Populist county convention at Kansas City, Kan., this afternoon developed into an anti-Leveillé movement, and Senator Taylor, who is well known to be opposed to the governor, was elected temporary chairman.

A series of light showers began falling before noon today and laid the dust that has been accumulating for several weeks. At the United States weather observers' office it is said that the weather is liable to be cloudy or stormy until Saturday.

Dr. Agnes Haviland, Mrs. Mary E. Leese's secretary, writes from Olathe that Mrs. Leese is no better. A trained nurse arrived yesterday, and Dr. H. W. Roby has been summoned.

A WORD OF WARNING.

The Topeka Methodist Conference Insists on Prohibition in the Platform.

The Republican party must this year either put a straight and clear prohibition plank in its platform or it will lose the votes and support of the Methodist preachers.

For several years the Methodist preachers have not been very well satisfied with the action of the party managers toward the question of prohibition and they are now determined to either force the Republican politicians to stand by prohibition or cast their vote with a party which will, and take a large share of their church members with them.

At the Topeka District M. E. conference, which has been in session at Perry and adjourned today, the Methodist ministers talked this matter over and adopted the following resolution, which was introduced by Rev. T. J. Ream.

"Resolved, That this district conference views with alarm the indications of a purpose among political managers to ignore the question of prohibition in the coming campaign, and we desire to declare our convictions that there is no question before the people of this state of superior importance to that of the continued suppression of the saloon, and that we shall consider ourselves absolved from allegiance to any political party that is indifferent to this supreme issue."

By a vote the resolution was ordered to be given to the papers for publication.

In the meeting which adopted this resolution there were present preachers representing twenty-nine Methodist churches, with a membership of 4,688.

The churches represented include the following: Admire, Auburn, Burlingame, Carbondale, Centropolis, Clinton, Richmond, Dover, Grantville, Lyndon, Maple Hill, Meriden, Osage City, Osage City circuit, Overbrook, Perry, Pleasant Valley, Pomona, Scranton, Silver Lake, Tecumseh, Wakarusa, and the seven Methodist churches in Topeka including First Church, Kansas Avenue, Lowmyer Chapel, Martin Church, Oakland, Walnut, Grove and Parkdale.

The action of the Topeka district will no doubt be endorsed by the other districts of the Kansas conference, and the preachers mean what they say.

CONTRIBUTED $500,000.

The Sugar Trust Contributed That to the Democratic Campaign Fund.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The senate bribery investigation committee today began the inquiry into the connection of the sugar trust with the tariff legislation.

E. J. Edwards the author of the "Holland" letter in the Philadelphia Press was before the committee for several hours. Owing to the fact that the committee sat behind closed doors, and the additional fact that after emerging from the committee room Mr. Edwards was unwilling to discuss the proceedings, details of the inquiry cannot be had.

It is known however, that Mr. Edwards presented a written memorandum giving some of the sources of the information contained in his letter, and stating that he could not give his authority in other cases and why he could not.

Carlisle Revised Sugar Schedule.

He declined to state his authority for the information contained in his letter to the effect that Secretary Carlisle had appeared before the tariff sub-committee, consisting of Senators Jones, Vest and Mills, before the original senate bill was reported and had insisted that sugar be given protection because of its pledges made previous to the election, or for the statement that Mr. Carlisle had himself revised and written the sugar schedule.

$500,000 for Democratic Victory.

This schedule as prepared by Mr. Carlisle is still in existence and might be obtained. The fact could be definitely ascertained by summoning members of the finance committee. Other statements in his letter, the authority for which Mr. Edwards declined, to give were those that $500,000 was the amount contributed by the sugar trust to the Democratic campaign fund in 1892 and that a member of the firm of Moore & Schley, who he said in his letters were Senator Brice's brokers, had been in possession of the latest amendments which had been agreed upon to the tariff bill before the time, when Senator Voorhees still insisted on the floor of the senate that no amendments had been agreed to.

It was his information that this firm had a representative in Washington who was the man the amendments were handed. He could not recall this man's name, but he suggested it would be a comparatively easy matter for the committee to establish his identity.

Can't Reveal His Authority.

With reference to the contribution of a half million to the campaign fund in the last presidential election, Mr. Edwards said it would be a breach of faith to reveal the name of his authority. He also stated that it was his information that that money had not been contributed directly to the national committee but had been given to other organizations, where it was understood the money would be used in ways to result to the benefit of the national campaign.

Nor was his information positive that the sugar trust was such as had made the contribution; it may have been made by or through individual means of this trust with the understanding that in the case of success, the trust should be protected against damaging legislation. He instanced in support of this information, a statement made by Governor Waller, of Connecticut, before an investigating committee in that state, in which he said Governor Waller had stated that wealthy men of New York had contributed $100,000 towards Democratic success in Connecticut.

Populists Profited by It.

Mr. Edwards said it was his information that half of this amount had been contributed by Mr. Havemeyer, and that the other half had been raised by E. C. Benedict. In the case of Colorado, which had been stated in his letter had been carried for the Populists by the aid of money thus obtained, he said that it was a notorious fact that the leading members of the Democratic party in Colorado had been in consultation with the wealthy Democrats of New York prior to the election.

RED HANDED STRIFE.

A Score of the Coke Strikers Shot Down

Guards at Stickle Hollow Armed With Winchesters

Pour a Deadly Fire Into the Mob.

ACCOUNTS CONFLICT.

One Statement Says the Shooting Was Unprovoked,

Another Says that Some of the Guards Were Shot.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 24.—At day-break the battle which has been threatened at the Stickle Hollow mines of the Washington Coal and Coke company the past three days occurred, and as a result at least three strikers are lying dead and half a dozen are seriously wounded.

The killed and wounded were carried off the ground as they were moved down by the fifty men armed with Winchester rifles who were guarding the plant. It cannot be said to have been a battle as not a shot was fired by the strikers, but seemingly without provocation volleys were fired by the deputies, while the strikers were assembled in the public road.

Shortly before midnight last night 2,000 strikers assembled at the Stickle Hollow plant coming from Lucyville, Fayette City, Freeport, Allentown, and many other points on the Monongahela river. Some of them were armed, but the majority were not.

Meant to Use Persuasion.

They went into camp near the plant where they remained until 3 o'clock when they adjourned to the public road leading to the works and over which the workmen would have to pass the pit. Here they formed a line of defense to interrupt the workmen and attempt to get them to return home.

According to the plans they stopped the first delegation of miners and after a little persuasion induced them to join the strike. The men turned back and about the time they were starting back home with their dinner buckets the deputies who were on guard and witnesses to the affair were ordered to shoot.

They fired three volleys into the mob at a range of only about fifty yards.

The first volley brought forth no response from the strikers, who were thought to be well armed, but instead they ran in every direction, leaving the dead and wounded lying in the public road. The deputies followed with two more volleys and were shooting when the last striker disappeared. The report of the affair given by the officials of the company is to the effect that three strikers were picked up dead in the road after the shooting and about a half dozen wounded ones were carried away by their comrades.

The reports say six men were killed and sixteen wounded.

Later News.

The extent of the daylight battle at Stickle Hollow is just becoming known. There has not been so fierce a conflict in the coke regions or river district since the inauguration of the strike. In fact it is the first engagement in which both deputies and strikers were shooting to kill.

Later reports place the number of killed to five and the wounded to eight and other victims of the unfortunate affair may be found when they can had for a more thorough investigation of the results. It was not a one-sided affair as at first reported, but it was a battle with many guns on one side as on the other and with as much firing by the strikers as by the deputies.

Among the wounded are three deputies, while the killed are all strikers. When the workmen came to the strikers in the public road they were asked to go home. The workmen were about to comply with the command, when the deputies rushed into the midst of the men, got possession of the workmen and marched them to the pit. In this part of the performance a deputy sheriff fired a shot which opened up the battle.

There was volley after volley fired by each side at close range. The strikers stood their ground while their comrades were falling one by one, but their ammunition giving out and requiring too much time to load the shot guns, they were forced to give up the fight and flee to escape the rain of bullets from the fifty Winchester.

It is said the strikers were advancing on the line of deputies when the latter fired the first shot. A large number of strikers were arrested by deputies today who had guns in their possession and who were equipped with ammunition. They are now held prisoners and will be brought to jail together here. It is now believed that the deputies had some provocation for shooting when they did.
